

The Best is yet to be!
Hebrews 12:18-24 (pg.1384)

1. Looking back at where we have been, vs. 18-21

Exodus 19 (pg.82)

Romans 3:19-22 (pg.1296)

2. Looking forward at where we are going, vs.22-23

Looking up at where we are at, vs.24

Colossians 1:19-22 (pg.1353)

Life Group/Personal study Questions
Hebrews 12:18-24

Vs.18, what was the “mountain that was not to be touched?”

What does it represent?

Why is it important that we look back at where we have been?

How can it also be unhealthy? (See Philip. 3:13-14)

Vs.22, What does Mt. Zion represent? (See Gal. 4:22-5:1)

Why is it important that we look forward? (See Titus 2:11-14)

Vs.23, What are we looking forward to? (See Rev. 21:1-4)

Vs.24, Why is it important to keep our focus on Christ?
(See Heb. 3:1 & 12:2-3)

What are some things that Satan uses to get our focus off of Christ?

How do we avoid or overcome these?

Sermon Notes
Sunday, September 16, 2018

Pastor Jim Miller
“The Best is Yet to Be”

“... looking for the blessed hope
and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ.”

Titus 2:13